

June 11, 2017 – The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Welcome to the University Parish Newman Center. We cherish your presence among us and invite you to enter wholeheartedly into our worship. As Catholics, we understand our worship as our community's grateful response to God's goodness and love. Thus our liturgy is not a "spectator" experience; participation in prayer and in song is everyone's responsibility and privilege. Please do not be a stranger. Pray and sing with us as members of God's human family.

Scrapper Jack Is At Your Service

Do you have any metal objects lurking in your basement or garage that could be reclaimed? If so, call our parish scrapper, Jack Guzi at (330) 696-8890. Keep in mind the following items can be scrapped: aluminum cans (pop and beer cans), metal cans (that contained food, etc.), and metal lids or tops (from food containers or beverages). Parishioners can save these items in bags and call Jack for pick-up or meet him before or after Mass. All proceeds from the sale of the scrapped material will be donated to the Capital Campaign.

Church at Home Combined Collection

Thank you for your generous support last weekend of the Church at Home combined collection. If you were unable to give last weekend, please consider giving today for this important collection.

Mission Committee

The second quarter deadline for submitting financial support to our El Salvador Missions, which are the Padre Nicolas Antonio Rodriguez Diocesan School and El Salvador Student Scholarships, is June 25. Make checks payable to DOY- El Salvador Missions with either PNARDS or ESSS on the memo line. Checks should be inserted into an envelope marked E.S. Missions and placed in the collection basket or dropped off at the parish office. Thank you!

Our committee will meet on Thursday, June 22 at 7 pm in the Fireside Lounge. Please come! Questions? Call Kate Horning at 330-688-0604.

Stewardship Thought

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." John 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you fit it in when it's convenient for you? Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Vocation Thought

"God so loved the world, He gave His only Son." How can you give yourself to God the Father in a response to that love? Could God be calling you to live His love as a priest or in the consecrated life? If you think God may be offering you this grace, call Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451, or by email at: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

News and Noteworthy

Liturgical Ministers: If you did not receive an email requesting your availability for July-September, please email Veronica at kentnewmancenter@gmail.com with your availability as soon as possible. Thank you!

During the month of July we will be collecting items for Catholic Charities School Supplies Drive. Please keep in mind the last day to bring supplies is July 30. A detailed list of items is coming soon.

From the Diocese

In recent years the U.S. Bishops have called for a Fortnight for Freedom: fourteen days of prayer, education, and action for religious freedom in the U.S. and abroad. The Fortnight for Freedom takes place from June 21 to July 4, a time when the liturgical calendar recognizes great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power, including St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church in Rome. This year's theme focuses on Witnesses to Freedom. To learn more go to www.fortnight4freedom.org.

On the Fourth of July, Bishop George V. Murry, SJ will preach the homily at a Holy Hour taking place at 6:45 pm at St. Columba Cathedral in observation of the annual Fortnight for Freedom. All are invited to pray for our nation and join in a Fireworks Extravaganza which includes a free cook-out followed by fireworks over the city of Youngstown. Donations accepted. Bring lawn chairs and soft drinks. RSVPs are necessary: 330-744-8451 ext. 271.
